The third round resumed on Sunday morning at 9:01 a.m. Mountain Time, 31 minutes after its originally-scheduled start time of 8:30 a.m. due to frost. It was completed at 2:12 p.m. MT.

The last unscheduled Monday finish was the 2010 Arnold Palmer Invitational. This will be the first Monday finish at the Waste Management Phoenix Open since 1978.

Prior to this week, the 2008 Waste Management Phoenix Open was the last time there was a frost delay on the PGA TOUR. In 2008, this event had a 40-minute frost delay on Thursday, January 31, a 90-minute frost delay on Friday, February 1, and a 58-minute frost delay Saturday, February 2.

Tommy Gainey (63-65-68 – 17-under)

Gainey, who has not made a cut in three previous starts this season, is making his first start at this event. His opening rounds of 63-65-68 are his first rounds in the 60s this season.

Gainey's 54-hole 196 is four shots better than his previous-best mark (200, 2008 Children's Miracle Network Classic). The 196 score ties the fourth lowest since the tournament moved to the TPC Scottsdale.

Year	Player	Score
2001	Mark Calcavecchia	189 (24-under)
1997	Steve Jones	191 (22-under)
2001	Rocco Mediate	195 (18-under)
1997	David Duval	196 (17-under)
2011	Tommy Gainey	196 (17-under)

Gainey will carry a 1-stroke lead over Mark Wilson into the final round of the Waste Management Phoenix Open. Prior to this week, he had never held a lead after any round on the PGA TOUR.

Gainey's career-best finish came at the 2008 Children's Miracle Network Classic (finished 2nd).

Gainey earned his ticket to the PGA TOUR after finishing 4th on the Nationwide Tour money list last season after recording two wins.

Mark Wilson (65-64-68 – 16-under)

Wilson, making his fourth start at the event (T14-2010, T48-2009, T9-2008), carded a third-round, 3-under 68-under to sit just one stroke off of Tommy Gainey's 17-under lead. Wilson began the final round of the 2010 Waste Management Phoenix Open four strokes off the lead at T6. He finished T14.

Mark Wilson opened his season with a victory at the Sony Open in Hawaii, his third-career win (2007 Honda Classic, 2009 Mayakoba Golf Classic, 2011 Sony Open in Hawaii).

Earlier this week, Wilson's wife Amy, President of the PGA TOUR Wives Association, spear-headed a "Blessings in a Backpack" effort to provide food to under-privileged kids. The focus of this endeavor went to Nevitt Elementary School.

Bill Haas (65-65-68 – 15-under)

Haas, making his fourth start of the season, is off to a great start. He opened the season with eighth-place honors at the season-opening Hyundai Tournament of Champions. He followed that a week later with a playoff loss to Jhonattan Vegas at the Bob Hope Classic and then a T9 at the Farmers Insurance Open.

Haas is making his fifth start at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. He has missed three of four previous cuts, but managed a T9 finish in 2009. He did not compete at TPC Scottsdale last year.

Chris Couch (66-65-68 – 14-under)

Couch is making his sixth start in this event. Despite missing the cut in three of his first five starts, he managed a T4 at TPC Scottsdale in 2010.

Couch is making his third start of the year, where he is off to a solid start. In his first event of the season, the Bob Hope Classic, he finished T7. Last week, he finished T29 at the Farmers Insurance Open.

Rickie Fowler (70-62-69 – 12-under)

The 2010 Rookie of the Year holed a 123-yard pitching wedge for an eagle-2 en route to a third-round 2-under 69. He will begin the final round five strokes off Tommy Gainey's lead.

Rickie Fowler has finished inside the top 5 six times on TOUR, with three coming in Arizona (2-2010 Waste Management Phoenix Open, P2-2009 Frys.com Open, 4-2010 Frys.com Open).
